1. This society of the Protestant Episcopal Church shall be called the Woman's Auxiliary, and shall pursue its labors under the direction of the Priest in charge.

2. Each branch shall have a President, Vice President, Treasurer, and Secretary, and such other officers as the local branch shall deem necessary. These officers shall be elected annually the first of October, or as soon thereafter as practicable.

3. The President shall preside at all meetings. In her absence the Vice President shall preside and perform the duties of President. If both are absent, the Secretary shall act as President. They may have prayers and discuss matters pertaining to the work of the society.

The service at the meetings shall be a hymn, Lord's Prayer, Creed, and other prayers, and a portion of Scripture read or recited. So far as they are able they shall learn

4. No officer shall use the funds of the Women's Auxiliary as she thinks best; in every case in regard to money or property to be decided upon, the President shall put the matter to the yote of the society. But no money belonging to the Auxiliary may be loaned to any person, nor articles belonging to the Auxiliary be sold on credit.

5. During any meeting, if there is any question not understood, or something under dispute, or any proposal from the men, before the same is decided the Priest in charge shall be notified, and his judgment rendered.
